

WINCHESTER ANNEXES BEAUTIFUL CONTEST

Cantwell and McKenzie Work Well in Pitchers' Battle. "Hoot Mon" Fans Big Cy McDonald With Two on Bases—Stinson, Sieber, Messitt, Sentz and Baker Lead Batting.

Although McKenzie performed the great feat of striking out big "Cy" McDonald with two men on bases, the Valley boys downed the champions by the score of 2 to 1.

McKenzie and Cantwell, the ex-Georgetown stars who worked like a big league, were pitted against each other, and the honors were about even. Each pitched good ball, nine hits being secured off "Hoot Mon's" delivery, while Cantwell's batters were touched up to the tune of eight safe ones. Each pitcher kept the bingles widely scattered, but each was a little unsteady, McKenzie walking three men and Cantwell hitting two; while each is credited with a wild pitch.

The only earned run of the game was made by Winchester in the fourth, on Stinson's single, a base-the-runner by Knox, Mabry's infield out and Sterzer's single.

Winchester scored in the first on a pass, McKenzie's wild throw to first and Sandy Baker's drive for three bases.

Richmond's tally came in the first. Lipe was hit by a pitched ball, went to third on a wild pitch, and scored on Sieber's two-sacker.

McKenzie pulled himself out of a tight place in the fifth. Brown and Baker each singled and things looked good for the Valleyites, while Richmond stock took a slump. But McKenzie got down to work, and there was something doing for Richmond. Big Cy McDonald, the hefty 210-pound slugger, the terror of all those who serve on the firing line, smiled confidently and stepped up to the plate, but Mac got him going and all he could do was to cut three large hunks out of the ozone.

Dugan, another brag willow-wielder, followed Big Cy and did likewise, stirring the air about so that the spectators thought an electric fan was cooling things off. Sentz took one in the ribs and walked, filling the bases, but "Hoot Mon" was equal to the occasion, and the best Knox could do was to knock three huge chunks out of the etheral air column. Three strike-outs in one inning is going some.

Jay Kanzer was the hero of two innings.

Games To-Day.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
Pittsburgh at Boston.
Cincinnati at New York.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

On the returns, as so far officially passed upon by National League officials, the conclusion of the New York-Chicago series finds New York still leading in the race by a margin of thirteen points. The leaders' victory of yesterday adds one to their "won" column and makes up for the subtraction of the victory previously credited on the result of Wednesday's game, now decided, a tie. Chicago's defeat and Pittsburgh's victory of Thursday place Chicago and Pittsburgh on equal terms, in second place, and the standing this morning is as follows:

| Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P.C. |
|-----------------|------|-------|------|
| New York..... | 88 | 50 | .638 |
| Chicago..... | 80 | 54 | .595 |
| Pittsburgh..... | 80 | 54 | .595 |

In the American League the race has been made closer by the defeats of Cleveland and Chicago from playing in a tie encounter with Philadelphia, and is now only two points behind Chicago. St. Louis won and pulled up to within four points of Detroit. The standing, Thursday's games included, is:

| Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P.C. |
|----------------|------|-------|------|
| Cleveland..... | 83 | 61 | .576 |
| Chicago..... | 81 | 62 | .566 |

Big Doing on Polo Field.
NEW YORK, September 24.—After an exceptionally nerve-tingling two days for the baseball enthusiasts, the New York-Chicago series in the National League ended to-day in a 5 to 4 victory for the home team. The game kept the immense crowd at a high pitch of excitement. The dramatic and apparently uncertain ending of yesterday's game had shared its place in the last contest, and especially in view of President Pullman's ruling to-day that the umpires' decision that yesterday's game was a tie would stand.

Further interest was added by the fact that Chicago had already played a game before the crowd, but put it off, field with no other team and no umpire on the diamond and had claimed that a 9 to 0 defeat had been recorded against New York. They relied in this, it was said, upon a rule which they construed as making compulsory the appearance of a team on the day succeeding it. Further, they urged that the New Yorks should, under the rules, be given the game on the day they were scheduled to play. The officers of the New York Club, however, stated they had received no intimation from the Chicagoans of their desire to play on this day, and did not take the matter at all seriously. One of the officials called attention to the fact that the Chicagoans appeared for the regularly scheduled game in spite of a statement that had been given out that the New Yorks were by the rules barred from playing until the fine had been paid, which seemed to indicate that the Chicago Club was not altogether in earnest in the matter.

But in the scheduled game there was no doubt of earnestness on both sides. At the opening New York put out Breen and Bresnahan in the points, and Chicago Brown and Kling. New York scored promptly in the first. Tenney on a double by Donlin and Herzog on a hot infield single by Seymour. In the fifth they took their other three. Tenney and Bresnahan on a three-baser by Donlin, and Donlin on a sacrifice. Chicago bunched its four in the seventh. A single by Tinker scored Steinke, who had been hit by a pitch, and brought in Hoffman and Tinker. Wittse then retired in favor of Mathewson, and Howard, batting for Cooley, replaced him. Mathewson brought in Kling, after which Mathewson held the Chicagoans hitless.
